The Missouri State Council of Firefighters endorses small businessman Mike Kehoe in 6th District State Senate race

Jefferson City – The Missouri State Council of Firefighters announced their endorsement of central Missouri small businessman Mike Kehoe, Republican candidate for the 6th District State Senate seat which includes Callaway, Cole, Miller, Moniteau, and Morgan Counties. The Missouri Council of Firefighters is comprised of 6,800 firefighters, paramedics, EMTs, and emergency dispatchers from around the state of Missouri, including the 6th Senate District.

“We are excited to announce our endorsement of Mike Kehoe, a first class businessman and community leader who represents the hardworking values of our members and the communities we serve. We look forward to putting our full efforts behind Mike and will work hard to see him elected to the 6th District State Senate seat,” said Mark Habbas, legislative director of the MSCFF.

Mike Kehoe stated, “I am truly honored to be associated with the Missouri State Council of Firefighters. Communities all over the 6th District and the state of Missouri are thankful that they have the protection of first responders that the MSCFF represent. I am committed to fighting for the health and safety of front line workers who put their lives on the line every day to keep our communities safe.”
